8 HILARIOUS YEARS (AND COUNTING) OFF-BROADWAY

THE ACCIDENTAL PERVERT is the hit, laugh-out-loud Off-Broadway show, now in its 8th year running in NYC. Let acclaimed comedian and author Andrew Goffman take you on a whirlwind tour of his hilariously awkward romance with magazines, videos, and off-color daydreams that will leave you rolling in the aisles.

Our story begins in 1969, appropriately enough, and not too far from Inter-course... about 7 miles away, to be exact, in Blue Ball, PA. Andrew is an average boy, living a regular suburban life (would you believe the street he grew up on was called Woodcock Lane?!?). When Andrew's parents divorce, he stumbles upon a box containing his Dad's collection of dirty videos, hidden away in a bedroom closet. This accidental find leaves him with a wickedly funny, albeit distorted, view of women and sexuality, as he struggles to find the balance between fantasy and reality. The images color the way he sees the world, and this early exposure to pornography, that he and so many young men have, affects his relationships with members of the opposite sex for a long time to come.

But it's not all laughs in this coming of age story, which ends on a touching moment of redemption as our beloved Pervert finds true love and perspective through real-life relationships. Andrew falls in love, gets married, and as fate would have it, becomes a father... to a baby girl!

The Accidental Pervert follows in the successful footsteps of such well-traveled shows as Defending the Caveman and The Vagina Monologues. The show continues to receive positive notices in the press and on audience review sites, as it celebrates a long run in the competitive NYC market. Additionally, it has enjoyed award-winning runs in Argentina, Malta, Panama, successful productions in Switzerland & Norway, Germany, Australia, Ireland, Croatia and upcoming runs in Serbia, Bosnia and Herzegovina in 2018.

SHOWS ARE HELD EVERY FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHT AT 7 P.M. AT THE 13TH STREET REPERTORY COMPANY.
